The Turtle Armour simply protects the turtle as it is walking so that it is always safe from unexpected danger. The armour, or coverings, protect the head, arms, and legs.
 Alexander Poulouvassilis

It's the drink that walks! The Necklace Drink-Holder hangs around your neck and allows you to sip your drink and walk... hands free!!!
 Anastasia Douka and Katerina Douka

'Probella' comes from the words 'protection' and 'umbrella'. It's for those really rainy and windy days. Probella's handle circles around your waist and continues behind your back. It finally fans out over your head. The plastic protection drops from above your head to your mid-calf. Don't worry. There are openings so you can breathe and there are sleeves, too. With Probella you don't get wet anymore, and you don't even have to hold it. It's the umbrella that you wear!
 Myrto Efthymiades and Christina Kalogeropoulou

We love marshmallows! The Portable Marshmallow Roaster is a gadget which allows you to roast marshmallows, eat marshmallows, and walk around, all at the same time!
 Kimon Softas and Kleon Tsetis

The Anti-Theft Bag is the latest fashion! It is a bag that has a chain and bracelet attached to it. The purse snatcher will have a little difficulty taking your bag because you will be wearing it instead of holding it!
 Thelma Hassapi and Suzanna Ousta

Tired of those bullies taking your pencil-case, pen, or even your lunch? Well, then, The Bully Pencil Protector is what you need. The next time the school bully frightens you, just aim your Bully Pencil Protector at your target, blow and spit the paper ball out. The bully will feel a sharp sting where the paper ball hits them.
 Michael Alisafakis and Alexander Tzotzolakis

The Two-in-One is for those people who keep fumbling with their spoons and forks and can't decide which one to use. Now all you have to do is switch sides. Use either one with the same ease.
 Stella Papanagiotaki and Linda Antonakou
